

My A+ Insurance carrier client is seeking a Risk Control Consultant located in or near Atlanta, Ga. The company provides quality property and casualty insurance services to specialized industries including construction, forest products, and public entities. This is a remote position with required overnight travel to customer job sites and offices. The territory is Atlanta and Southern GA.

Position Summary :

As part of the Risk Control team, this position will provide risk control services to company customers in the following territory: Atlanta and south Georgia

Primary Responsibilities:

- Evaluate exposure and exposure controls for current and prospective customers focusing on Workers' Compensation, general liability, and Commercial Auto lines
- Identify and recommend risk improvements
- Prepare various risk control reports
- Conduct occasional safety meetings / training for customers
- Utilize product line expertise to ensure good loss experience outcomes
- Foster new business development through quality agency relationships and effective customer interactions
- Help to mentor, train, and fill in for team members as needed
- Other responsibilities as assigned

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree in Occupational Safety and Health or related field preferred
- 5+ years of experience as a Risk Control Consultant/Loss Control Consultant with experience in the areas of DOT Fleet Safety, Commercial Construction; Forestry; or Public Entities.
- Professional safety certification (CSP, ARM, or other) preferred; or willingness to obtain
- OSHA/MSHA/DOT knowledge preferred
- Progressive working knowledge of customer safety programs, state and federal regulations, and general insurance and policy terms
- Good communication and mentoring skills; ability to convey knowledge to others
- Ability to develop and maintain good customer relations
- Effectively communicate in person, by telephone, and email with supervisors, co-workers, customers and their representatives, and other third parties
- Ability to routinely bend, kneel, reach, climb, and walk around to evaluate customer job sites and machinery
- Valid Drivers License, with acceptable motor vehicle report.

Benefits:

- Competitive salary $80k-$100k and benefits
- Paid vacation and 11 paid holidays a year
- Health, dental, and vision insurance
- Company paid life insurance – 2x annual earnings
- 401(k) Savings and Profit Sharing Plan
- Education and training opportunities
- Insurance designations encouraged with financial assistance available
- Daily two-hour flexible start and end time for 7.5-hour workday
- Employee Fitness Program

Contact

Andrew Proctor, President, Pauken Executive Search.

andrew@paukeninc.com 954-560-4830

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/andrewproctorrecruiter/>

Pauken Executive Search is a national and international executive recruiting firm that specializes in the P&C industry and has been helping advance the careers of insurance professionals for 28 years.