

Safety Manager – Atlanta, GA

The Safety Manager is responsible for overseeing occupational health, safety training, accident investigation, and ensuring compliance with Environment Health and Safety (EHS) regulations.

The Safety Manager is also responsible for maintaining and improving the company's safety standards, implementing safety protocols, and conducting regular inspections and audits.

Qualifications

- OSHA 500 Certified
- 5 Years of experience in safety training and accident investigation
- Thorough knowledge of health and safety (EHS) laws and guidelines
- Excellent communication and organizational skills
- Excellent leadership and motivation skills
- Must be able to provide detailed reports and develop safety processes and procedures

*Bilingual (English/Spanish) a plus

If interested please reach out to:

Sam Bacon
770.818.0008
baconsam@greencircledemolition.com